MAKE FRIENDS

THE HUSTLE.

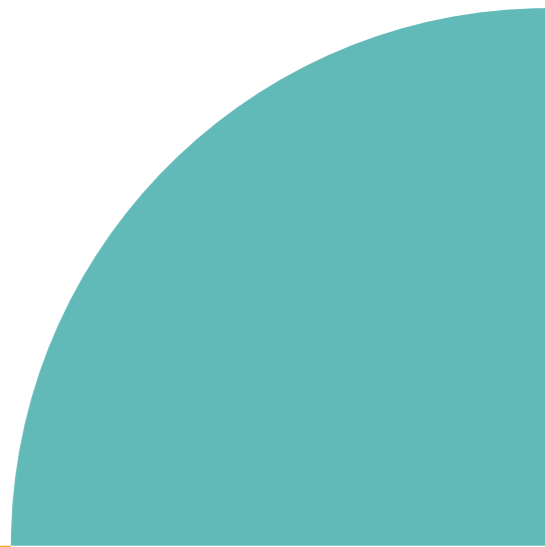

GOING PLACES, STAYING IN SYNC.

Austin Lakes is already home to happy residents who love their peaceful, natural surrounds. The heart of the community beats from a central hub with a stunning central lake and picnic area, plus award-winning playground. The friendly local shopping centre is here, along with a private primary school.

The cleverly designed and integrated masterplan has future stages coming to life, with Austin Lakes ultimately covering 430 hectares, and accommodating over 2,500 homes and multiple generations of families. A new public primary school is proposed, along with a district oval plus community sports and social facilities, and additional commercial and retail facilities.

Next stages will offer a variety of very affordable lot sizes through several releases. If you're after a larger backyard, lots from 400m² to 500m² will deliver outstanding value in the region. Make the best of your lifestyle with ample space to entertain, store your boat and fishing gear, or park the caravan.

Design for upcoming stages takes cues from existing streetscapes and their sense of friendly belonging. Space, orientation and connection matter, as do safe, walkable streets. A central spine will wind through Austin Lakes, dotted with pocket parks creating calm, green spots for you to catch up and catch your breath.

NATURAL FREEDOM RUNS DEEP.

Launch a boat, reel in the big one, surf, paddle a canoe, or catch crabs in the estuary. Austin Lakes is the perfect balance of river, estuary and ocean – all yours, absolutely free.

Head along the Bund Walking Trail or do a sport of birdwatching at the natural wetlands hugging the inlet shoreline. Teach kids and grandkids how to throw a line into the water or how to row a boat.

Marvel at boats lined up in the marina. Or tell tales of the one that got away over happy sundowners at your local tavern. Hook up the caravan and head off to explore the beautiful south west region within easy reach.

Everyone loves the freestyling life at Austin Lakes, and the estate's safe walking and cycle paths encourage all generations to breathe deeply and smile widely.

Playing is real life with squeals of delight. Feel total awe at the endless energy of the kids as they run down to award-winning Adventurescape playground.

Watch them climb, jump, explore and swing on a flying fox. It's the ultimate meeting spot to make best friends forever, meet like-minded families, and catch up with neighbours. Pack a picnic or barbecue and wander over with weary little bodies to recharge batteries and chill-out together on green, landscaped grounds around the lake.

Yunderup Pre-Kindy is only a 3 minute car journey, and a 10 minute drive takes you to Pinjarra Senior High School. Better still, many buses run regular timetables so getting to school and home again is a breeze.

A future public primary school is proposed for Austin Lakes, together with a district oval and recreational spaces that will form an extended community hub.

MOVE YOUR WAY.

The unhurried, uncomplicated nature of Austin Lakes means you're free to set your own pace and let the flow take you. Now and in the future, it's a neighbourhood with a small-town heart that treasures its community. Surrounded by natural, uncrowded beauty that keeps modern living balanced, it's also a place close to everything you need for a vibrant lifestyle.

New stage design will retain this sense of connectivity with the area, and will feature view lines to local bushland and towards the Peel Estuary. Safe walking paths will continue to wind their way through beautiful streetscapes, and cycle paths will continue to get you out and about. A seamless network of small parks will run through the neighbourhood, encouraging residents to socialise and enjoy the outdoors.

The current central hub with beautiful lake and playground remains an ideal spot to catch up with friends and neighbours. In the future, a second retail centre is proposed as Austin Lakes expands. A proposed district sporting oval will open up further opportunities to foster active lifestyles for all ages and grow the special community spirit even more.
